

CAREER CRUSH CAMP

This 2-week hands-on career exploration camp for Black girls aged 12-14 will expose and connect participants to a wide variety of career options and potential mentors.

Career Crush Camp will support and inspire black girls and other girls of color to visualize their bright futures and potential through discovery, development of potential. Participants will experience entrepreneurship, creative arts, civic engagement, service learning, science and all the possibilities that they can achieve.

Sesheme invites dynamic, inquisitive, young Black women to participate in this unique and customized program, which offers workshops, tours, and team building activities lead by an exquisite team of talented and influential professional women from a variety of sectors and non-traditional career paths. Through this experience participants will also receive socio-emotional support and guidance needed for positive development.

By the end of the camp participants will:

- Learn how to be an agent of their own career
- Unpack skills, interests, values and other attributes
- Practice exploring and researching career options
- Connect with professionals who will share their career stories and advice
- Visit workplaces in around the community
- Identify options for their career aspirations
